Code of Conduct

IBN’s Code of Conduct (2016) requires IBN directors, employees and members to respect the law and other people at all times.

IBN Members are expected to behave with Respect, Patience, Honesty, Courtesy and Care.

Unacceptable behaviour includes abuse, physical assault or threats, ‘trolling’ on social media, ‘humbugging’, dishonesty, theft or damage to property.

IBN members who breach this Code of Conduct will be asked to explain themselves to an IBN manager or the CEO. After investigation, if proven to be true, a breach may lead to mediation, a warning, suspension of benefits, or legal intervention. Serious acts will be reported to the police.

Privacy Statement

Members’ personal information is confidential to IBN. It is used solely by IBN for providing benefits and services to members and to monitor programs. Personal information about a member or a dependent child will be shared only with the permission of the member or the child’s parents or approved carer.
Community Programs – an overview

The Community Programs are funded by the IBN Charitable Foundation and are reviewed and updated every year by the IBN Board. This handbook gives a summary of what is available and what is not available in each program. There may be special conditions or exclusions in the IBN policy that cannot be printed in full in this Handbook, but our IBN office teams can explain the details and help members to apply.

As well as Community Programs, IBN has Service Delivery teams in our three Pilbara offices. Our Field Officers provide practical support and can help members to access programs and services offered by IBN, government agencies, other Trusts and charities.
